Bowie High School Baseball Program Commercial/Sponsor Advertisements

Bowie High School baseball begins their 2009-2010 year. Head Varsity Coach Bill Jenkins and his staff are looking forward to a great season.

From February to April, our non-district, district and tournament games will attract a large number of players, parents, teachers, students and other baseball fans. We expect to contend for the district title and want you and your company to share in this excitement and support the efforts of these young men. Please join our team by purchasing your display advertisement as follows:
